

The Voluntary Initiative and Catchment Sensitive Farming Agronomy Meeting

28th March 2017

The Mascall Centre Lower Galdeford, Ludlow SY8 1RZ

A meeting for local agronomists, farmers, Catchment Sensitive Farming Officers and anyone working in water quality and agriculture in the Teme catchment or local area.

Tea and coffee will be available upon arrival in the Kemp Room from 10am

Programme:

Meeting Opens	10.30
Session 1 – Local water quality Severn Trent – The local water company’s perspective Catchment Sensitive Farming - Local priorities and activities	10.40-11.30
Session 2 - Stewardship in arable rotations and on grassland farms Overview of the OSR Herbicides Campaign Weed control in grassland areas	11.30-12.30
12. 30 Lunch
Session 3 – An introduction to new VI tools BeeConnected: Insecticide Stewardship Check It Out: Pesticide Handling Practices	13.30-14.30
Session 4 – Topical issues A panel discussion to answer questions arising from the day’s topics and to cover any additional items suggested by the group	1430-1530

There is no charge to attend this meeting but all attendees must register in advance
To do so please contact Rebecca@voluntaryinitiative.org.uk or call 07736 638139
Please let us know if you have any dietary requirements

BASIS and NROSO points have been applied for